From David’s Desk:

Maria and I had a special celebration in our lives the week before Easter. We celebrated our 42nd wedding anniversary on March 23rd.

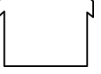

It really does not seem like we have been together that long. I guess time flies when you have a great partner in ministry. But then I think back over the time that we have had together and realize that there have been some times that we had to struggle through when things did not go as we planned or expected. I tend to call those times the thin times of our lives. These were times when we had to wait to conceive a child, the miscarriage, the loss of my mother and both of Maria’s parents, and other times when things did not go as we planned. Those are the times that made our relationship stronger. Those were the times when we realized that some things were beyond our control and we had to rely on God and His grace to see us through. In today’s Gospel Lesson Jesus tells Peter that things are not always going to go Peter’s way. He will be led around when he gets old. God’s way is not our way at times.

But those were the times when God made our relationship stronger. When we looked to God for strength He never fails! The end results are not always the way we think they should be but the main thing to remember is that God is always there to see you though those thin times.

Yes! “God is good all the time! All the time, God is good!”
As the old country preacher says, “Can I get an amen?!”
In the grip of His grace,
