From David’s Desk:

It seems that every day is met with a new atrocity stemming from the Islamic State. Christianity was born in the east, not the west, and we are witnessing a once-in-a-thousand-year attempt at destroying it in the place of its birth. So, how should we as Christians in the west respond to the threat of ISIS against Christians in the east? Perhaps we should do the following: Educate ourselves. Read not only things you might agree with but also things you don’t so you might have some balance. As Christians we must pray more than ever. We must pray for those persecuted Christians but also for those persecuted Muslims. Understand that more Muslims are being killed by ISIS and radical factions than Christians. The Bible implores us to “pray for our enemies” as well as those we love. Let us be known for our love. Jesus gave the greatest commandment. “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and soul and your neighbor as yourself. We must not be silent. We must preach the gospel of God’s love for ALL his children . Remember God made us all in His image and we should love everybody and share the “Good News” of Jesus Christ to all we see. You never know when it will make a difference. I guess we could say, when in doubt, LOVE!

In the Grip of God’s Grace,
Pastor David+
