From David’s Desk:
We stand at a Crossroad. We can choose what we want our future to be. In today’s society we deal; with a lot of fatalism. It seems that most people believe that “the world has gone to hell in a hand basket” and there is nothing we can do about. But I ask you, do you really thing that that is true. Do you think that is true about our ministry here at Greene Street United Methodist Church. It our fate sealed or can we make a difference. In the theology of the United Methodist Church, we believe in free will. In other words we think that God made us with a mind and charges us to use four elements to make moral, religious and if fact all our decisions in life. Those five elements are—Scripture, reason, experience, and tradition, In the next few weeks and months we will be doing some things like we have never done before. The tasks may seem beyond what we think we can accomplish. We need to update our mission and vision statement for the church. Our Bishop has challenged us to “dream God-sized dreams”. I challenge you to dream God-sized dreams. Our vision of ministry here may say a lot about our vision of God. Scripture tells just that “We can do all things through Christ who strengthens us.” Phil 4:13. Just musing, In the Grip of God’s Grace, Pastor David+
