Prayers of the People

Leader: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Leader: Let us Pray.

Congregational Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

During our prayer time, the worship leader will allow a few moments so that names may be lifted from the congregation. After the name is lifted, the leader will say, "Lord, in your mercy," and you are invited to respond by saying, "Hear our prayer".

Congregational Prayer Chorus

*Lord, listen to your children praying, Lord, send your Spirit in this place;
Lord, listen to your children praying, send us love, send us power, send us grace.*

(The altar is always available for you to come and to spend some time in prayer with God during the closing song.)

From David’s Desk:

This week, please welcome Rev. John Culp who will be preaching today. We are blessed to have Rev. Culp share with us. He is a legend in the work of the South Carolina Annual Conference from the founding of the ultra successful Salkehatchie Summer Service Ministry to his ever presence on the floor of the Annual Conference. He is always bringing attention to the ministry areas that need attention. His work of increased accountability and transparency in the budgeting and accounting of the expenditure of Conference funds have been most helpful to those of us who work in the administration of the Conference.

John is retired although he spends as much time in ministry since he retired as he did when he was an “active” pastor. John is active in the work of the Kingdom. His work on social justice issues is one of his many hallmarks.

John is a University of South Carolina graduate, a true Gamecock. He attended here at Greene Street UMC while attending the University and has often expressed a deep love for this church as he explored his call to ministry while studying here in Columbia.

I ask you to make John welcome this Sunday while I serve at the Men N Ministry Spiritual Retreat at Myrtle Beach this weekend.

In the Grip of God’s Grace,

Remember Ashes to Go, Wednesday, March 1, 2017, from 10:00 am to Noon.

Thank you for worshiping with us today. If you are a first time visitor please see one of our greeters or usher to receive a gift from us. Also, please fill out a visitors form located in the back of the pew.

Welcome

Our Bible Study will resume on Ash Wednesday. Please join us.

Memorials

The church has received many memorials since our secretary has been hospitalized and sick at home recovering. We will recognize those and will send acknowledgements when she is back at work and able to send them. Thanks so much for your patience and understanding.
