From David’s Desk:

I had the opportunity to attend the Columbia Fireflies game on the Fourth of July. It really was a grand occasion! First of all the organization honored our own Bobby Price by having him throwing out the first pitch. Bobby did and it was a perfect strike. They made mention of the fact that he was a former minor league player before he gave up baseball to get married and go fight for his country. They quoted Bobby as saying, “I was just doing my job.” That was a humble saying from a man that did his duty to his country and his family. Bobby has taught Sunday School here at Greene Street United Methodist Church for over 30 years and should be commended for all he has done for the church and for God’s Kingdom here on earth. But, if I were a betting person, I would wager that Bobby would give the same answer, “I was just doing my job.”

Is that the attitude we all have regarding our responsibilities to the Kingdom of God? Do we put the Kingdom ahead of our own motives? Are our chores around the house placed on a higher priority than the things for God? Do our calendar and our check-books reflect that we are children of God or children of our own desires? Are we Kingdom people or are we people of our own desires? Just Musing!
In the Grip of God’s Grace,
Pastor David+
