Gospel Lesson		Mark 6:30-34, 53-56
Morning Message		Rev. David Anderson
*Affirmation of Faith	“Apostles’ Creed”	No. 881
Offering God’s tithes, Ourselves and our Gifts
*The Doxology		No. 94
	Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, Praise God, all creatures here below, Alleluia, Alleluia! Praise God the source of all our gifts! Praise Jesus Christ Whose Power uplifts! Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
*Hymn of Dedication	“Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us”	No. 381
Benediction:
Musical Benediction Response:	“As A Fire Is Meant for Burning”	vs. 3 No. 2237
	As a green bud in the springtime is a sign of life renewed, So may we be signs of oneness ‘mid earth’s peoples many hued. As a rainbow lights the heavens when a storm is past and gone, May our lives reflect the radiance of God’s new and glorious dawn.
*Postlude
*You are invited to stand if you are able. (The altar is always available for you to come and to spend some time in prayer with God during the closing song.)

From David’s Desk:

I was trying to come up with a topic for this column today and I thought of the great needs of our church. We have a leaky roof, stained ceilings, an unusable fellowship hall due to water and mildew issues, carpet and flooring that are in desperate need of replacing. How can we get all this done?

Wade Wiles at a recent Administrative Council meeting said that the church has stepped out on faith before and we could do it again. I have thought about those words a lot this week. Faith is one of the greatest gifts God has given us but as the Book of James tells us, “Faith without works is dead.”

Stewardship of our resources, especially our time is of utmost importance. What are your priorities? How does the church place in that pecking order. I have heard many here at this church say with almost a pride, “We move at glacial speed”. But that is the way to extinction and not to new life.

We have to remember that all we have comes from God and we have to give him his share first. Not just our leftovers. Set your priorities in order.

There is a quote from C.S Lewis that says this much better than I ever could, “Every faculty you have, your power of thinking or of moving your limbs from moment to moment, is given you by God. If you devoted every moment of your whole life exclusively to His service, you could not give Him anything that was not in a sense His own already.” This quote from his book, Mere Christianity, tells us how we should order our lives. How do you order yours?
In the Grip of His Grace,
Pastor David+

NO BIRTHDAYS FOR THIS WEEK

Bible Study will meet this week. Join us Wednesday, at 6:00 pm. As we continue our study of The Way by Adam Hamilton.

I want to thank all of you for your phone calls, cards and especially your prayers as Frank and I are confronting his illness. Words can never express how much each of you is appreciated. We feel truly blessed to have our Greene Street Family and it is comforting to know we have your loving support. I hope to be with you soon. God blessings on each of you.

Love Marie Hollis
