May our lives reflect the radiance of God's new and glorious dawn.*

From David's Desk:

Today we welcome to our pulpit, the Rev. Tom Wall. Tom serves as campus minister here at the University of South Carolina Methodist Student Network.

This ministry is very important to the United Methodist students who attend the University. He has served in this position for many years. His work has been so effective that a group of current and former students actually gave him a car in appreciation for his ministry. That is quite a testament to how hard Tom works for and with the students here. I am proud to call Tom a colleague and friend. I know you will make him feel welcome.

Additionally, the football season is winding down. We will be coming up on the most important game of the year. The Gamecocks will be playing "that school from the up-state" also known as Clemson University for State bragging rights. We will hold friendly competitions for the Campus ministries from each school. For the next three Sundays we will have a USC Bucket and a Clemson bucket and we ask you to contribute to your favorite school as you leave the service on each respective Sunday. These funds will be used to support the student ministries at USC and Clemson.

In the Grip of God's Grace,
Pastor David+

November 18th, 2015

Our sympathy and prayers are extended to Wade Wiles, III in the death of his son Brandon Wiles who died on Saturday, November 7, 2015. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to Brandon's grandparents, Jack and Tessie Neeley and Wade Wiles, Jr. Jesus said, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you." John 14:1-2

Sparkplugs will meet on November 18th at 11:00 am at church. We will have our annual Thanksgiving Luncheon. Come join with us. For more info call Mae Blume at 787-2871
