From David’s Desk:

Today we celebrate! This is the day which we together with most churches around the world share in celebrating Holy Communion. The word for communion is the Eucharist which means the thanksgiving, or praise for the wonderful works of God.

It is indeed appropriate that we celebrate at this time when we begin our attendance emphasis month. I hope you have invited and have brought some of your friends, family, and neighbors to church with you this morning. This is important for our Christian Witness here on the corner of Greene Street and Assembly Street.

We welcome the Reverend Albert Cox to our pulpit this morning. Albert served here at Greene Street United Methodist Church for many years and will always be considered “beloved” by those to whom he ministered while serving here. We are indeed fortunate to have him share with us this morning.

Celebrate God’s Love by asking someone to church this week.

In the Grip of God’s Grace,
Pastor David+
