From David’s Desk:
Remember that there is only one month left before we begin our Fall FRANGELISM month. Please begin now to invite your friends, neighbors and most especially your relatives to church. It will be the realization of a God-sized dream if we can average 100 in worship for the month of October. We can do it with God’s help.
We will begin the month with Worldwide communion Sunday with the Rev. Albert Cox as our guest preacher. Rev. Cox is a great goal setter and he left a lasting impression on this and every church he served.
This is your opportunity to support your church in a special way. If you are excited about attending church and share that excitement with your family, friends and neighbors, we can be a true example of what the church of Jesus Christ is all about.
Get excited about Greene Street United Methodist Church and we can make a difference.
In the Grip of God’s Grace, Pastor David+
